Asian Games: Blibli takes over ticket sales after glitch in KiosTix system

Callistasia Anggun Wijaya

Jakarta • Fri, August 17, 2018

Online ticket seller KiosTix has enlisted the help of e-commerce platform Blibli.com to sell Asian Games tickets following a technical glitch in the KiosTix system that has seen thousands of fans fail to purchase tickets.

Over the past three days, people could not buy any Asian Games tickets at all, because the ticketing system was down.

Indonesian Asian Games Organizing Committee (INASGOC) secretary-general Eris Herryanto said that, starting Friday, spectators could buy Asian Games tickets on blibli.com.
